Summary

Introduction p. 9

Part 1 Students' learning through language use in the classroom context

1 Discourse markers in EAP oral presentations 17

2 Icon or words? The communicativeness of EAP classroom posters 39

3 Language distorted in students' oral production: what common errors students should avoid 51

Part 2 Students' learning through language use in autonomous learning environments

4 Students' topic selection in the EAP classroom 65

5 E-discourse: the interactivity of academic virtual environments 75

6 Informalities in hip hop texts: what students can learn from songs 97

Part 3 Students' learning through teachers' language

7 Speech modifications in teacher-students classroom interaction 113

8 Discourse markers in teachers' content based academic lectures 135

9 End-of-term exam questions: what teachers like to ask p. 149

Part 4 Pedagogical considerations

Reflecting on the outcomes of case studies 159

References 165