

WORKSHEET 10: Change

TASK ONE: The word change can be a noun or a verb.

Study the concordance lines and mark each line either V for verb or N for noun.

ess openly fascist - do our tactics	change?	Talked about the importance
ive. It takes collective actions to	change	structural oppression of wo und in different ways to be able to	change	the order of gender, where and instruments to effect positive	change	that are mutually for all. the worlds poor. That the power to	change	the current global, politic million every year. To make a quick	change	to this situation there is tic information instead of secrecy”	change	of name into global tax jus cter of this network. Suggestion to	change	the name into international ne campaign through public pressure	Change	the policies of internacion ficiency Implementation Get climate	change	on the agenda of non enviro ir needs. To stop dangerous climate	change	we are going to have to hav sue we face. The impacts of climate	change	will be bourne by those tha e fight for climate justice Climate	change	is perhaps the most serious should be seen as an opportunity to	change	the modal split in favour o will expressed by the Commission to	change	the modal split in transpor nsive behaviour. The years after the	change	of the political and econom past or future? As a result of the	change	of the political and econom an EU OFAP as a helpful framework.	Change	consumption patterns and us armers’ NGOs in their endeavours to	change	both EU policies and nation and will have an impact on climate	change	(with effects on the South) easons the mobilisations on climate	change	in December 2009 in Copenha e in the division of housework. The	change	is international. When you not equal, but there has been a big	change	in the division of housewor Women going out to work did not	change	the division of work inside ough a collective world struggle to	change	this exploitative system an
ing. Perhaps most remarkable is the	change	from women being centred in self content with his condition, or	change	it by voting, that is drawi more people to refuse publicly and	change	the political situation. Bu he IMF operate would be required to	change	in line with sustainable ec ndeed the nature of companies would	change	too. They would be expected ment should be deemed human rights.	change	priorities - invest in the formation are necessary. We should:	change	course - establish new econ arliametary bill pressing for real	change	on corporate accountability and big business uses its power to	change	laws so that it can carry o ce healthy food available to all. A	change	in the aims and direction o
WE CALL FOR A	CHANGE	IN THE COMMON AGRICULTURAL
I crisis, which calls for a radical	change	in national and regional ag a sound development. Consumers can	change	many things by buying the b imate change curbing global climate	change	and reducing CO2 emissions tizens have practically no power to	change	or amend. A constitution sh entalists, yet when they tell us to	change	our lifestyle to prevent an

Write a definition(s) which explains the examples listed above.

Change:

TASK TWO: Writing Practise

Choose any of the questions/titles from the list below and write a paragraph about them.

1. What everyday actions can we take in order to positively change our society?
2. Can public pressure change governmental policies?
3. Climate change.