

WORKSHEET 12: Political

TASK ONE: Study the concordance lines.

nst them, and to deter community or	political	activity by them. Despit ome involved, often they legitimise	political	persecution. Under this ly destabilising or destroying' the	political,	economic or social stru tion between organised violence and	political	protest. Officially, 'te t suppressing or even criminalising	political	dissent. Now these natio upation Reject the romanticising of	political	violence Implementation ising or destroying the fundamental	political,	constitutional, economi side track. This has always been a	political	issue. The French occupa ourse of events is structural. When	political	contradictions sharpen, rights of all human beings – civic,	political,	economic, social and cu popular response to the social and	political	disintegration is religi overnment is losing its hold on the	political	leadership of the countr lled “Islamic ways”. One particular	political	party is known for its a Currently, there are more than 200	political	parties preparing for el of its penetration into the social,	political	and economic fabric of t r performance of the government and	political	leaders of the nation in n historical and complex process of	political	transition. After more t tended economic crisis and volatile	political	condition has meant that of armies in the domestic security,	political	& social affairs- The “s power to change the current global,	political	system rests in the hand ing statement addressed the current	political	situation and positions vement, but we have established the	political,	social and organisation fore have to confront the economic,	political	and social power structu rket altogether and made subject to	political	decisions. It was the or Competition was dampened through	political	interventions in the mar of power - of economic, social and	political	power. What made the wel terest on taxation to all citizens)	political	lobbying SSF: TJN was pr ties. Railways The ETF welcomes the	political	will expressed by the Co social standards. In respect of the	political	objective to reduce the thinking is dominated by this basic	political	assumption to such an ex em and social movement, to link the	political	point of view on globali too much radical or compromise in	political	structure. The seminar t organisations principal themes The	political	alternatives which the in After Cancun there is a	political	space that opened and we eaucratic affair, but the agenda is	political.	After Cancun there is a ght to health is also a question of	political	responsibility on the pa astructure projects. Include in our	political	work the function of enc ical right to start initiatives for	political	and practical projects i single point campaigns to give the	political	right to start initiativ ervices. People need to become more	political	and demand participation al rights. This will lead to higher	political	consciousness and intere needed so people can exercise their	political	rights. This will lead t

Initiatives are an important tool.	political	information and educatio vocacy agenda/actions that will put	political	pressure on European gov emological shift and for a feminist	political	agency, directly focusse inction between gender and feminist	political	economy. A gender approa throughout Europe, as languages and	political	-financial structures var s in between if we are to develop a	political	movement. If we don't we omen play a key role in strikes and	political	campaigns such as the an Geneva Convention"), insulated from	political	concerns such as the des
I to take a more active role in the	political	process. C. For Gypsy/Tr addressed by EU policy. We note the	political	exclusion of Roma/Gypsie cial 'respectable' discourse of our	political	establishment. So, for e daily living, on the background of	political	duels and grotesque elec facts and especially about the top	political	corruption from today Ro aristocracy, which serving the top	political	hierarchy, after a half e to refuse publicly and change the	political	situation. But we should ally and globally. To achieve this,	political	decentralisation is esse ving in very different economic and	political	circumstances in the Nor capacity for knowledge, social and	political	exchange and confrontati ation has a considerable social and	political	impact in every area and ally dominant model of economic and	political	relations, to produce a s and the European Union. Important	political	changes have materialize One of the objectives of	political	education activities as

Write a definition(s) which explains the examples listed above.

Political:

TASK TWO: Writing Practise

Choose any of the titles from the list below and write a paragraph about them.

1. Political parties.
2. Political corruption.
3. Political campaigns.
4. Political rights.
5. Political persecution.