

WORKSHEET 1: Rights

TASK ONE: Study the concordance lines.

Which preposition often follows rights?

List the adjectives that are used with rights.

List the verbs that are used with rights.

to harass and detain migrants, thus abolishing our	rights.	Since then, the Chirac government Instead migrants should demand	rights	independent of wage-labour to safeguard economic and social	rights,	especially of women and the other vulnerable economic alternatives, based on solidarity and human	rights,	taking into account needs of the most vulnerable what we in fact must do, to save our democratic	rights	from severe repression that can come quick of the Charter of Fundamental Rights, children's	rights	and strong articles on the Values and Objectives governments and civil society organisations to promote	rights	- based development and child focused policy exploitation of returnees, no legal protection of	rights,	lack of means for redress and recovery history and involvement in the USA civil	rights	movement, the Philippine "People Power" movement are essential aspects to women's autonomy. Women's	rights	have constantly been under attack, Reproductive rights: a global perspective Abortion	Rights	was formed by the merger of two existing social assistance, healthy social environmental	rights,	right to be elected in European Parliament along with	rights	of free word, information with no limits and learning States have thus given up fundamental	rights	in the name of "free trade".
institutions to respect human and civil	rights	The most powerful States an assault on human and civil	rights	Market driven globalisation institutions; contempt for the people's	rights	and the undermining of
ARE INDIVISIBLE All Human	rights -	political, civil, economic, social
THEIRS AND OURS ALL HUMAN	RIGHTS	ARE INDIVISIBLE
A WORLD WHERE ALL HUMAN	RIGHTS	ARE RESPECTED for the PROTECTION of HUMAN	RIGHTS	A WORLD FOR ALL,

We aim to extend human and civil	rights	to the protection of the Whenever necessary we defend these	rights	through the courts. We aim to the Universal Declaration of Human	Rights.	Whenever necessary we defend must respect human and civil	rights.	The globalisation we want ensure effective social and economic	rights.	Every international agreement, are fully informed and aware of their	rights	are best placed to ensure children, the rights of the aged, the	rights	of the disabled, the right to the rights of families and children, the	rights	of the aged, the rights of the employees, the right to health care, the	rights	of families and children, affirm: the right to a job and the	rights	of employees, the right to maximum rights. FUNDAMENTAL	RIGHTS	IN THE SOCIAL AND enjoy equal, maximum	rights.	FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS
On the contrary, we want to see these	rights	developed at the highest levels integration should not reduce the	rights	its residents already enjoy in regression. SPREADING	RIGHTS	AT THEIR HIGHEST the principles of real human	rights	which are universal FOR ALL HUMAN AND CIVIL	RIGHTS	The European Union should be fundamental human and civil	rights.	The Constitution is of the
IDENTICAL	RIGHTS	FOR ALL RESIDENTS

Write a definition(s) which explains the examples listed above.

A right is:

TASK TWO: Writing Practise

Choose any of the questions/titles from the list below and write a paragraph about them.

1. What are the things you believe people have a right to do?
2. Women's right to choose.
3. Human rights violations.