

WORKSHEET 2: Hijab

TASK ONE: Study the concordance lines.

Does the word hijab always refer to the same thing?

have been designated as “mandatory concerns over the prospect of a ban on the	hijab	zones”. Women’s dress and mobility remain.
many people are aware that actually right now the	hijab	is banned in more countries than it is enforced
this is also why I oppose the ban on wearing the	hijab .	In both cases the woman herself is no longer
(whichever view you hold on the issue of	hijab ),	coercion or enforcement form either side
Whilst I passionately defend my right to wear the	hijab	and urge solidarity on this issue
I think responding to the banning of	hijab	in French schools makes the point that
It is important to remember that whilst the	hijab	has recently been associated exclusively with Islam
In this way the aim of	hijab	is to de-emphasise sexuality in public interactions
her intimacy, warmth and protection. The idea of	hijab	is to maintain the exclusivity of that relationship
part of human nature and natural. The concept of	Hijab	actually denotes a code of behaviour
on the basis of their refusal to remove the	hijab	was discriminatory and unjust.

Write a definition(s) which explains the examples listed above.
