

WORKSHEET 8: Migrants

TASK ONE: Study the concordance lines.

Do the collocates of migrants have positive or negative connotations?

for new powers to harass and detain	Migrants,	thus abolishing our rights gh our experience of repression, we	migrants	have become anti-police.
ny organisations in France say that	migrants	should be decolonised, an n the current EU framework. Instead	migrants	should demand rights inde uld be a contradiction in terms for	migrants	to demand inclusion withi basic means for the state to manage	migrants.	It would be a contradict ts cannot fulfill. Of the 1 million	migrants	in Greece, most could be Border police make demands which	migrants	cannot fulfil. Of the 1
ce people who were once friendly to	migrants	now follow a new mentality
I aims: to create a general fear of	migrants,	to justify repressive me uropean state of insecurity? How do	migrants	(and others) resist these state of insecurity aims to isolate	migrants	— from each other, from t adopting repressive policies towards	migrants	and liberalising public s ectiveness for the users, including	migrants:	Prices are going up, qua aves" of immigration of "hordes" of	migrants.	The ESF also urges all E rs are wrongly classed as 'economic	migrants',	and that a number of EU legalization and equal rights to all	migrants;	for the closure of all d attacks on the rights and dignity of	migrants	and minorities. Although

Write a definition(s) which explains the examples listed above.

A migrant is:

TASK TWO: Writing Practise

Choose any of the questions/titles from the list below and write a paragraph about them.

1. What are the problems migrants face on arrival to a new country?
2. Do migrants really do the jobs that locals refuse?
3. Economic migrants.
4. Migrant laws.